STRAWBOSES AND COORDINATORS:

We have a log book by the main cash register. There is a section marked for you to enter your name, phone, growers job and time. It would be great to have a complete list.

DRY GOODS NOTES

Bulk organic frozen fruit is coming back. We have mangos, strawberries and blueberries (from Royal Blue). Others will soon be available.

Whoever special ordered the shelled edame, it is in the special order freezer. The tag was lost.

More miso is coming over the next week or two.

PS: Many thanks from Case

SEEKING OLD FRUIT BOOTH PHOTOS

When you go to the Country Fair do you start your conversations with; I remember when..or these kids today..? Do you prefer earlier nights at the fair or have to pick which night to stay up past Midnight? Do think about Crows feet when you look in the mirror? Do you find grey sexy? Then perhaps you were part of the Fruit Booth back in the seventies and early eighties. I am looking for photos for a collage to exhibit at the fair. If you were part of StarFlower, Willamette People's COOP, or Cooperative Fruit or any of the folks that shared the booth please contact me at 302-1518 or stevekind03@yahoo.com I am also interested in stories from that time. I can put all photos on disc and return them to their owners. Thanks for your time, Steve Brown, Fruit Booth.

STAND AGAINST DISCRIMINATION ON UNIVERSITY OF OREGON CAMPUS

Rally on Wednesday, May 4 at 3:30 in the College of Education Courtyard (Kincaid and 16th)

Followed by a March to Johnson Hall! In the last 2 years alone there are have been over 40 cases of discrimination in the College of Education at the University of Oregon. Many stem from students speaking up in class about multicultural competence/diversity issues. Fellow classmates have harassed these students and faculty and staff have retaliated against these students. ALL students should be able to learn in safe environments. This is currently not the case in the College of Education. For the FIRST TIME in about 20 years, the College of Education has a CRITICAL mass of students to substantiate these concerns. It is vital that these matters are addressed before these students graduate this spring and the momentum is lost. The COE depends on quick turnover rate of graduate students to avoid accountability. When will it stop? What will it take? Your presence at the Rally and March on Wednesday, May 4 will make the difference! Racist incidences and discrimination go untold EVERYDAY. If you would like to help support these causes, please contact: COEaction@hotmail.com
