Growers Market's Weekly Newsletter

GROWERS NEEDS YOUR HELP

you know growers is an all volunteer cooperative buying club. the volunteer part is very important. at the coordinators meeting monday we talked about the need for a few more volunteers, here are the positions that need filled: thursday evening closer, you would help the coordinator put growers to bed for the night, put produce in walk-in, close up buckets, a little cleaning..., starts about 7:30; friday--cashiers in the early afternoon and into early evening; also on friday general help from 11--3:00. there is cashier training, application to fill out, further information.....talk with the coordinator on duty during the time you would like to volunteer. the suggestion box is now the "contact the coordinators" box. most of the suggestions were for coordinators anyway. thank you for being growers and thanks for volunteering. growers is a great team to work with!!!! Sue og macadamia nuts and goji berries are out of stock and may not be back for a month or two. mango fillets are back and a few weeks early at that. we have holy kakow og cocoa powder, a new cocoa, not dutch processed and is fair trade. give it a try. as far as special orders go, we expanded the area for the s. o. tags and people aren't paying attention as to where the tags should go, i try to catch the mistakes but it would be easier if tags were put in the right place.. the same goes for product code. thanks. hope your gardens are growing well. (my housemate, jen-lin, has been creating new garden beds and growing lots of wonderful things.) take care, sue.

DRY GOODS NOTES

SUSTAINABILITY 'GREEN NEIGHBOR BIKE TOURS'

Dear Friends and Neighbors, Please join us for the Green Home bike tours in Eugene this summer. The NLC Committee on Sustainability [COS] an eco activist city wide neighborhood committee, is coordinating the tours. See the city wide schedule further below. For the on-line updated schedule of all the neighborhood tours, go to www.eugeneneighbors.org/wiki/NLCgreen#Upcoming_Events or <http://eugenesustainability.org/>. The tours are free, casual, social and a lot of fun and include different combinations of grass to garden, rain water catchment, active and passive solar design, green-building technique, chickenkeeping, non-conventional residential arrangements, permaculture, beekeeping, habitat restoration, neighborhood initiatives and more. Please check back for more as the sites are updated continually. Bikes are recommended but you can hop in a Eugene Pedicab on some tours or follow in a carpool. Please keep young kids on best behavior, we will be visiting special and sensitive homes and gardens that are personal and important to the people who live there. Please no pets. Bring water and a snack, tours will last about 3 hours

GARDEN-BASED SUMMER CAMPS

This year the Northwest Youth Corps and the School Garden Project of Lane County will be hosting youths age 9-13 for three, three week day camps that will focus on the diverse topic of Organic Gardening as well as farm production. Children will be able to bring home fresh produce and plant starts, visit local farms, explore their place in nature, create a "nature journal" to collect and press plants, build their own solar oven, make handmade paper, learn about bee keeping, and many more activities designed to combine crafts, games and lessons together for a complete educational experience. There are three sessions available this summer, each session runs from 9am- 4pm Monday through Friday and costs $295 per child. Their dates are as follows:

Session one: June 28-July 16

Session two: July 19- August 6

Session three: August 9 - August 27

You can register online by going to www.youthgrow.org or by mailing the downloadable application to Northwest Youth Corps: Youth Grow 2621 Augusta St. Eugene OR, 97403
