CASHIER NEEDED, FRIDAYS 10am-12pm

Please see any coordinator on duty or come in Friday anytime from 9am-12pm and speak with Nicolette (Nikki) if you are interested. If you have already gone through orientation all you need is a cashier training session with Taylor. You will receive Strawboss compensation for your cashiering hours. Yay! Remember: Members make Growers happen...that's you!

HEY ALL YOU FRUITS AND NUTS

It is that time of year again when we are looking for day passers to help out at this years Growers Fruit Booth at the Oregon Country Fair.

Have a great time cutting, stocking and serving fresh fruit while bringing funds in for the Growers Market. This is a great opportunity to be a part of the magic that makes the fair come alive. If this is something that you want to be a part of there is a sign up sheet on the right side of the big bulletin board.

Please include your name, number, e-mail, time, and day or days you can work. Just remember flakes belong on popcorn and not at the fruit booth.

We look forward to working with you.

For questions e-mail Jaci at jacimck@hotmail.com

Cheers,

Steve Brown

GOT A SKILL YOU WANT TO SHARE WITH THE GROWERS' MARKET?

We're trying to create a list of people with special skills that could be useful to the Growers' Market. If you want to earn some pumpkins by using your special skill, please let us know! How?

Two ways:

1. Fill out a "Skills" form at the Market. The forms are on the table, along with a box to put the completed form in, behind the boxes with the "pumpkin cards."
2. Send an email to ginny50c@gmail.com with this information:

Name

Contact information (phone and/or email)

Skills

Types of skills: Carpentry, sewing, plumbing, calligraphy, electric repair, appliance repair, painting, computer skills, graphic art work, coffee grinder maintenance...any others you have that would be useful to the Growers' Market!

LOCAL ORGANIC CHICKEN EGGS

Kara, Leo, and Myriad will sell eggs from our farm, Heartaculture Farm Community, every Thursday in May from 2:30-5:30, at Growers Market. Price: $4.50 per dozen. ($0.50 of each dozen sold goes to Growers Market.) Our chickens are free-ranging, organically fed (we are not certified), and given feed that is free of corn and soy. People with corn and soy allergies and other health problems have an easier time digesting our farm's eggs compared to eggs from chickens that are fed corn and soy (which is the industry standard, even for organic chickens). You can also visit our farm, see the chickens, and buy eggs at Heartaculture Farm Community, 88470 Fisher Road, Eugene, Oregon. (541) 485-1921.

RENTAL WANTED:

Hello! I am seeking a 1 bedroom apartment/studio/backyard cottage/cabin/yurt in Eugene, (though I would consider something a bit more rural within 5-10 miles of Eugene) to move into around or after June 1st. (I need to give 30 days notice in my current living situation.) I am looking for a home with beauty near to nature (trails/river) and hopefully with some land and a garden. I realize many places for rent go unadvertised and I am looking for one of these secret, word-of-mouth type spots that friends tell friends about. I can pay between $300-$500 hopefully including utilities and maybe with the possibility of worktrade (gardening, childcare, cooking, caretaking, herbal medicine). I would love to live near others with a relaxed community mindset, but have my own space too. I've just started a herbalism program and singing classes (would love to live with those who play music and sing), and I work for myself making jewelry and some PT work for a local company. I can provide personal and housing references and have a great credit herstory. Things I would like in a home: -full kitchen with gas range and full fridge (mini ones don't work well for me) -month to month agreement (I will intend to be there until winter, though quite possibly much longer) -bathtub (or access to one) -wood floors -lots of windows and good natural and unnatural light -quiet -near hills/ trails/ nature (SW Eugene near the ridgeline trail would be great)-open space (enough to dance is great) -good energy -garden space -partially furnished would be a nice option -washer/dryer/clothesline would be awesome. I would also consider living with a woman with similar interests and lifestyles in a setting as described. We would need to talk a lot more about what we are looking for. If sharing a house with someone(s)--though fewer housemates would be preferred, my intention is to become friends, share meals occasionally, and have a good connection. Please let me know if you have any questions, I'd be happy to tell you anything more about myself. Thanks for reading and considering me! Blessings! Leora
