THANKSGIVING WEEK SHOPPING HOURS

Growers Market will be closed on Thanksgiving, Thursday, November 28th and on Friday, November 29th. Our experience has been that very few people shop on Buy Nothing Day. Instead, Growers will be open for shopping from 2:30 pm to 7:30 pm on Tuesday, November 25th. In other words, Growers will be closed on Thursday and Friday, November 28th and 29th, but open on Tuesday, November 25th for the normal Thursday hours. – Milton first off, something fun: thursday 5 dec from 3:30 to 6:00 there will be a tasting of blue lotus chai teas. hummingbird carries blue lotus, which is made in eugene, the tasting is an introduction of their teas. some members had asked about blue lotus, when i called in a recent hummingbird order we had a choice of samples or a tasting, i thought a tasting would be a nice thing to warm up a thursday. come and try some of their teas and we will soon have the teas on our shelves.

DRY GOODS NOTES

other stuff; once again peanut butter is on special, so are better than bouillion mixes, alden's ice cream as well as a couple good deals on chips. og. brown rice vinegar has been out of stock due to production problems so we may we be getting it in bottles for a while.

get some good root veggies, roast them, put your feet up and have some tea while you wait for your veggies to be done. sue

WELCOME NEW TENANTS

The Helios Resource Network, a small family foundation, is one of the new tenants in the Growers Market Building. Helios puts out an events calendar for Lane County. Another new tenant is the Our Islands Conservation Center, which is concerned about the effects of global warming on small island countries. A third new tenant is a business that does website development for non-profits. --Milton
