COMPLETE 35TH ANNIVERSARY PARTY DETAILS!

The Potluck: On Saturday October the 21st at the WOW Hall, right before the big event the Growers Market Potluck will start at 5:00 p.m. and continue till 6:00 p.m. Please bring a dish and label the food contents. Please avoid peanuts as an ingredient in the menu, for some people are very allergic and peanuts can make them very ill. Remember to bring your own dishes and utensils or compostable paper plates. Anyone who can stay after to help clean up please do. Vickie Nelson will be showing slides about Growers Market history. Vickie and her household worked with Paul Bestler and others to start Growers Market in the Fall of 1971. Paul passed on many years ago, but no doubt is somewhere smiling at every Growers adventure. Vickie is trying to get some of the old-time Growers people to come to the potluck. Any questions? E-mail Lilly or Kirk, kirkh@efn.org.

The Party: Eugene's Wellsville plays at that saddle-wear crossroads where country soul meets guitar stomp. Influences include Tom Waits, Richard Thompson, Old 97s, Eaglesmith, The Wagoners and the Elvises (Costello and Presley). Eugene's Conjugal Visitors call their style of acoustic folk/bluegrass "Cascadia's finest Appalachian Twang." The band maintains an eclectic arsenal of old-timey traditionals, dancey fiddle tunes and spirited originals. Watching the Conjugal Visitors perform makes you feel like you've been invited into a living room jam session, yet the talent and polish soon shines through the laid back attitude. Doors open at 7:00 pm for a silent auction and a shadow puppet show to be performed by the Landfill Gardeners. Admission will be on a sliding scale of $5 to $5000 at the door. The WOW Hall is located at the corner of 8th and Lincoln in Eugene and is open for all ages. Adult refreshments are available downstairs. For more information please call 687-2746.
