HELP WANTED:

Orientation on Tuesday evenings! Half-hour shift helping our new members find their feet and welcoming them to the community. 5:30 to about 6:00 every Tuesday evening. Contact Taylor for info (683-8250) or come in on a Tuesday evening.

HELP WITH GROWERS INVENTORY

Growers needs lots of help with our year-end inventory, which we need to do for tax purposes and to help gauge the co-op's financial condition. This year, the counting and weighing will start on Thursday, December 30th, at 6 pm, and we will finish up beginning at 2 pm on Saturday, January 1st. You can come late, and you can volunteer for an hour, or for longer if you want. We offer double pumpkins, so helping with inventory is a good opportunity for students, teachers and other busy people who have a little free time at the end of the year. People might want to shop earlier than 6 pm to avoid the inventory activity. Growers will be closed on Friday, December 31st. Darcy Strange will again be coordinating the counting and weighing (thanks, Darcy).

ADAPTABLE SHOPPING

Bulk and dry good are in disarray due to building improvements. Look carefully, it's all here in the same general area. It should be put back together in two weeks. Thanks and have fun shopping.

LIDS WANTED!

wanted: if you recycle, not reuse the 8 ounce nancy's yogurt cups i would love to have the lids. the same goes for lids from tubes of tennis balls. i use them in candle production. i've put a bag up by the front desk. thanks, sue.

CHRISTMAS TREES FOR SALE

Hello and Merry Xmas. I will be selling xmas trees again this year. If you or anybody you know plan on purchasing a cut tree for the holiday season, please come by my stand on the corner of 29th and Willamette (behind the gas station). We will have a large assortment of trees, wreaths, swag, free hot cocoa and candy canes, and other Christmas stuff. Hope to see you there. We will be opening the day after Thanksgiving and closing around the 22nd of December. Happy holidays.

Thanks for being growers. Nathan

HELLO HERB & PLANT LOVERS,

Sharol Tilgner has created a new blog at <http://dreamingabeautifulworld.blogspot.com/> The blog offers information on health, herbs, gardening and general self-sufficiency.

The current subjects on the blog are:

- 1) Influenza: How to prevent it, information on immunizations and links to further details
- 2) The Cause of the Massive Deaths of Honey Bees
- 3) A Simple Pump: For those of you thinking about putting a hand pump on your well

Please let her know what you would like to see on the blog in the future.

* Cozy 2 bedroom house with artists studio in Eco-Village/ Permaculture Project. Shared yard, greenhouse, gardens, chickens, shared chores. Electric heat, W&D hookups, storage, high speed internet, Whiteaker neighborhood. $795.00./ Mo. + utilities. Beekeeping experience a plus. Move in costs include 1st + last + deposits. No smoking on property. No pets. Available first week of December. (541) 683-0626 <www.arttrekinc.com/possumplace/>

* Looking to share this lovely house with a conscious, communicative, joyous, mature person! Sharing with a woman is my preference but if after reading this post you feel like you are a good match, please still contact me. My housemate has decided to travel and just put in his 30 days notice. Move in costs will be $725 (half for first month's rent and half for security). The rent split evenly is $362.50 each + utilities. I do not have internet set up and can not afford it at this time. We have a month to month lease agreement. As of now, I will be living here until Feb or mid-Feb. I am waiting to hear if a spot opens for me in a herbal school, beginning March 15 in Cali. This will most likely happen, though I am not sure when I will find out, and I am exploring other options if it does not work out, so I don't plan on being in Eugene for Spring/Summer (though that may change...) I will be able to give at least a month's notice to you, if not more! I would like to live with someone who definitely plans on staying until Feb or March, or beyond. (And I'm happy to help you find a new housemate.)

The house is beautiful and has: a bathtub, wood floors throughout, washer/dryer hook up, electric stove, dishwasher, a big open living and dining room space (perfect for dancing/yoga!), new energy efficient windows (and many of them), electric baseboards, a thermostat in each room, a bike/storage shed, a mud/coat room in back. It is in an alleyway, dead ending into a bike bath and park. Your room is in the front of the house with one double window looking out to a stand of oak trees and a side window to the side yard. There is a small closet with some shelves and space for hanging clothes with a shelf above it.

About me: Ecologically and spiritually minded, committed to a natural lifestyle, value healthy honest communication, on a healing path. I love to cook, and spend a lot of time in the kitchen, eating in the Nourishing Traditions style--so yes I cook meat and make bone stock (not much red meat and no bacon). I have very strong chemical and fragrance sensitivities, though natural/organic products and essential oils are usually fine. To elaborate, I can not live with someone who uses any conventional body care or cleaning products. Incense is usually not okay, a little sage is okay. Even some natural products are too strong for me, so please be open to discussing this with me to make sure we are both comfortable. I am mostly very quiet, but like to sing, and I like to dance to music a few times a week (this could happen when you are gone). Generally I go to bed between 10-11 and like quiet at night. I wont live with a TV or microwave. I will also be working from home making earrings to sell at the holiday market and looking for outside work as well. I tend to be a home body, especially in the winter time. It is very important to me to have a home with peaceful, good energy and have a healthy flow with the person I live with. I am extremely minimal on drinking and hope to live with someone similar. I hope to live with someone who socializes outside mostly, and might bring one friend over at a time, a few times a week, but not much more than that. I am not sure if pets are allowed on our lease, but I would prefer not living with pets.

Please contact Leora at LEOROARA@gmail.com or 525-0118. Please spread the word to your friends. Blessings!

SEED SWAP

The institute of contemporary ethnobotany and the seed ambassadors project are sponsoring the 11th annual food not lawns seed swap, to be held on sunday, december 5th, from 1 pm to 3 pm at the community room of the east blair housing co-op, 640 w. 4th (between adams and jackson, also accessible from w. 4th alley.) Build community by sharing surplus harvest bounty with your friends and neighbors at this annual event. Bring your seeds, plants, canned goods, brews, tinctures, food, instruments, friends, or just yourself! (piano on site). No charge.

Send submissions to garbanzo@lists.opn.org. You can also put articles in the garbanzo box at Growers. Newsletter copy deadline is 5:00 pm Wednesday. Market hours are Tuesdays 5-7pm; Thursdays 2:30 to 7:30 pm and Fridays 9:00 am to 6:30 pm. An orientation to Growers is held each Thursday at 1:30. The Growers email list includes an electronic banzo, events notices, and other misc. info.
